HOW DO I APPLY?

Details on how to apply for the Australian Government ICT Cadetship Program are available on our website:
www.australia.gov.au/ictentrylevel

To apply you must:

- be an Australian Citizen

- have completed the first year (full-time equivalent) of your undergraduate degree in ICT, or your undergraduate degree with an ICT major

- be able to complete your university studies in a minimum of 18 months and a maximum of three years

- be willing to undergo security and health assessments.

The Australian Government values a diverse and inclusive workforce and strongly encourages applications from all sectors of the community.

MORE INFORMATION

Email: ictentrylevelprograms@digital.gov.au

Phone: 02 6120 8701

Website: www.australia.gov.au/ictentrylevel

Find us on Facebook
Australian Government ICT Entry-level Programs

An Australian Government Initiative

AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT
ICT CADETSHIP PROGRAM

If you are looking for a challenge and have a keen interest in ICT, then kick start your digital career with the Australian Government ICT Cadetship Program. Apply for this program and be considered for exciting positions in a range of Australian Government agencies.

As an Australian Government ICT Cadet you will receive:

- a competitive starting salary

- a stable, part-time permanent job while you continue your study

- a study allowance to cover part of your university costs

- free Australian Computer Society (ACS) membership and access to ACS events

- generous leave and superannuation

- structured support and mentoring from managers and colleagues

- flexible working arrangements

- opportunities to network with other ICT professionals.

WHAT WILL I DO?

You will be employed at the APS2 level (or equivalent) in one of the Australian Government agencies participating in the program. You will work a minimum two days per week as part of a team in one of the following ICT related areas:

- infrastructure support
- networking
- programming
- applications development
- web development
- systems testing
- systems analysis and design
- systems management.

The remainder of your working week will be dedicated towards your university study, which should take you a minimum of 18 months and a maximum of three years to finish. Your cadetship will be complete when you successfully graduate from university and you will also receive a generous study allowance to support your university costs.

'Photo by Andrew Sikorski, courtesy of the Australian Government Department of Education and Training'.

HOW DO I STAY ON TRACK?

You will be offered dedicated support to ensure success during your cadetship.

Your workplace supervisor will guide you in your day-to-day work, answer questions and provide you with advice. A dedicated Career Development and Support Officer will also assist with your academic and workplace progress, as well as act as an informal mentor and career coach.

You will participate in networking events where you can meet other ICT cadets in order to develop professional and social networks.

In addition, you will participate in training activities which will provide you with the skills and knowledge you need to become a high performing Australian Government employee.

WILL I HAVE A PERMANENT ROLE AT THE END OF MY CADETSHIP?

Yes. You will be employed as a permanent Australian Government employee from day one.

During your cadetship you will also be provided with training to help you increase your opportunities for promotion in the Australian Government at the end of the program.

AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT
ICT CADETSHIP PROGRAM